

NEWSLETTER UPDATE May 8, 2021, J. Warnes

On behalf of the DVAS Executive, I am heartened to advise our membership that we are using this hiatus in activities by constructively planning for the way ahead for our Society. We are working diligently to build stronger platforms for communication, to update policies and to plan ahead to maintain and develop our programs for when we are permitted to resume.

The cancellation of this year's Annual General Meeting was inevitable; many societies and organizations such as ours have made similar decisions based on current health protocol.

However, we presently have a series of communication channels available to update DVAS members; more than ever, it is important to check your email often for Newsletters and to log-in to our newly updated DVAS Website on a regular basis at:

www.dartmouthvisualarts.ca

Thanks to Mary Lou Whitehorne, our website is now fully interactive, provides a plentitude of information and serves as an excellent resource for our members.

Also, 'Dartmouth Visual Arts Society' is now on Facebook!

It is hoped that our upcoming Exhibition entitled The Great Outdoors, which is scheduled to run from June 2nd to June 27th, can go ahead as planned. The chair of the Exhibits Committee, Kathy Snell, has completed the registration for this show and is working on the 'Sitting Schedule' for the Gallery Event.

Webmaster, Mary Lou Whitehorne has designed and distributed a splendid promotional poster.

So, fingers crossed that we can go ahead with this!

CREATIVE CORNER

Here are some painting tips and ideas to help to get you through painting during this lockdown:

You can still practice your plein-air painting activities in the “Great Outdoors” even if you aren’t able to travel to your favourite plein-air locations. Just look outside your window, step onto your patio, look over your fence or whatever you’ve got!

“If you can’t paint in the place you love, love to paint in the place you live!”

safely!

NEWSLETTER UPDATE May 27, 2021

DVAS Gallery Show and Sale, Craig Gallery June 2021

After considering the viability of postponing the Craig Gallery Show to later in June, the DVAS Executive has made the decision to cancel the planned Craig Gallery Show which was due to open on June 1st.

However, it is anticipated that the October Gallery Show will be able to proceed with more certainty.

The plan is to maintain the same theme of The Great Outdoors.

In a few days we should be in receipt of more information from our Premier and Chief Medical Officer in regard to our progress as a Province; our infection rates are dropping steadily and we anticipate details of a step-by-step plan to cautiously resume some programs and activities.

Things can change at short notice, and now, more than ever, it is important to check your email often for Newsletters and to log-in to our newly updated DVAS Website on a regular basis at:

www.dartmouthvisualarts.ca

Also, don't forget that 'Dartmouth Visual Arts Society' is now on Facebook!
